PIANIST ORNSTEIN IN KELLERD WILL TAKE A FUTURIST RECITAL

Unique in Endeavor to Set Be- Garden Theatre Star to Show fore Workaday World Impressionistic Music.

Leo Ornstein, planist, gave a recital absorbingly interesting to any one not ary of long tailed birds of paradise that float through heaven and can-ell balanced in parts. Vannin is a new name here. He is far darting futurist, and his music filled with the rhapsodic emotion and shevelled expression of the most rabid calification party in music. His night was a weird one, filled with chordal mysteries and miseries and draping its few melodic stars in nebulous mists of notes lost from at least two s. The waltzers had a pungent for they whirled for a few instants through space to a Spanish dance figure. You have heard it in Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole."

Cyril Scott's sonata was worth a hearing. It has certain values, though perhaps not large ones. It has a well defined scheme, and the fugue which concludes it is something original and rux of the afternal control of the second of the control of the con anding attention. However, the of the afternoon lay in the come frank to confess that we do not dieve a note of them. Possibly Mr. in does, and at any rate we hope of bargees, the tramp steamers g on their sides in the mud or merely smells, it matters not. Some bells g in the Strand and their clear ped down into the indescrib-s of Ornstein's Thames like matters which he affects is enter one:

as transparent as ripples on water, uch more tangible than the word ositions heard yesterday ex- hold the dignity of the stage." ost especially one trait belong-y to this futurist school. They itles of utilizing the overmade ravishing effects, would way this sudden call of the kitchen on Miss Arthur? She has been living ever since her marriage in a Boston hotel and the greatest domestic problem that she ever had to confront during that time was the daily inspection of the bill of fare of the Parker togramme offered. prised three numbers, Max Refor the music before them clarity its characteristic mood As an artistic combination wit' out doubt become a valu-tor in the concert field of this

THE DETHIERS IN RECITAL.

THE METROPOLITAN CONCERT.

Fone Members of Opera Company of the Metropolitan opera singers art in last night's concert at the olitan Opera House—Sophie Bras-label Garrison, Pasquale Amato west Sunday night audiences of to sang two songs by Rossini and nd all of the singers combined Massenet and the Beautiful Blue Danube

'HAMLET' ON TOUR

WIZARDRY OF KEYBOARD STAGE NEWS AND GOSSIP

His Unbounded Faith in Shakespeare.

Ever since the Sothern and Marlowe "modern" music at the Cort Theatre combination retired from the stage and vesterday afternoon. This recital, unique Robert Mantell was swallowed up by in its endeavor to set before hearers of the voracious movies there has been a aday world the tonal fantasias dearth of repertoire companies. There new impressionistic dreamers, was is in fact no company now travelling in repertoire, although James K. Hackett soon will revive "Macbeth."

To such a perfect Shakespearian as light and not hostile to all un- John Kellerd this situation was of course tain explorations in the mysterious intolerable. Mr. Kellerd shares with the late Edwin Booth the distinction of be-The programme comprised two pieces ing the only actor who ever played Vannin--"The Night" and "The Hamlet in New York for an ex-Waltzers"—Cyril Scott's sonata, opus 66, Ravel's "Oiseaux Tristes" and sonatina, Albeniz's "Almeria," Ornstein's own "Improvisata," "Impression of the Thames" and "Wild Men's Dance" and young Erich Korngold's suite in seven parts, entitled "Fairy Pictures." This list was on the whole fairly representative of the "modern" tendencies, except perhaps in the case of the Albeniz number, which sounded too lucid and ans in the case of the Albeniz which sounded too lucid and need in parts.

Is a new name here. He is riting futurist, and his music until warm weather made him incapable.

until warm weather made him incapable of any further struggle.

Naturally he has risen to the present deplorable situation and will soon start out with a company acting "Romeo and Juliet," "Hamlet," "Macbeth" and "The Merchant of Venice." Percy Haswell, who played some of the heroines during the illness of Miss Marlowe, will be the leading actress of the organization.

consider the fugue which it is something original and prima donna, who has been for several years at the Theatre de la Monnaie in Brussels, sang in America for the first time last night. She was on the programme at the benefit given at the program and was born in Brussels. She fled with her family when the Germans arrived and was in Antwerp during the bombardment. She escaped to Ing the bombardment. She escaped to Holland in a wagon drawn by horses and was two days on the way to neutral

Charlotte must live on skates. She one dropped down into the indescribthle mess of Ornstein's Thames like tars into a fog. And as for the wild men, they were mad men, and the addest of them all was the composer.
It is a pity to speak about the skill of Ornstein as a planist, for the reason that Rink, where Charlotte must live on skates. She dances twice daily at the Hippodrome, not counting the private exhibitions arranged between performances. Then there are the rehearsals which are said to be held every morning at the St. Nicholas Rink, where Charlotte must live on skates. She dances twice daily at the Hippodrome,
not counting the private exhibitions arranged between performances. Then there are the rehearsals which are said to be held every morning at the St. Nicholas Rink, where Charlotte must live on skates. She dances twice daily at the Hippodrome,
not counting the private exhibitions arranged between performances. Then there are the rehearsals which are said to be held every morning at the St. Nicholas Rink, where Charlotte must live on skates. is likely to be an agent for the spread evil dectrines in musical art. But the trimmed with skunk fur and close fitting the must be told. The young man is his chosen field—or shall we call it imports the control of t an extraordinary virtuoso. He is not a skating suit? And if she has,

Mrs. Richard Mansfield has denied in seeks chiefly after tonal effects and shall be a writer, a lawyer, a farmer—comedy is to put it mildly. It was a not far from Savannah.

Its melodic ideas are fragmentary lamentous. They seldom clothe lives in sharply out rhythms, for id figure, as it was cultivated by stage more rigorously than Richard penalty and Jane Grey and Tully fathers, is inimical to this Mansfield. Alas, heredity is too strong, mposition. Yet it has its and my son is now fitting himself for the and my son is now niting influent to the dramatic profession. He may be spared dramatic profession. He may be spared also has its melodies, and, elusive as evaluating the privation through which his father passed; he cannot be spared the melodic, curves floating and wavers like smoke rings and the rhythmic atterns transparent as ripples on water. From me to feel a pride in saying, 'I am and rhythms of the so-called father's profession.' I hope he may always feel that pride and worthily up-

> "Should a Baby Die?" will be the next tilizing the over-The astonishing well known Chicago medical crisis.

The dear ladies of the stage are so cs made ravishing effects, would cen impracticable on any other limit. If nothing else comes of moous kind of writing, the experiments of the instrument may be enriched by these news of tone coloring.

DETHIERS IN RECITAL.

The dear ladies of the stage are so domestic. There is Julia Arthur, who dreaded to give up domestic life for the stage, struggling along to try to be just as homelike as ever, even if she must still play eight times a week in "The Eternal Magdalene." Her blographer for purposes of publicity has explained to a puzzled world that Miss Arthur is able to combine art and housewifery by making out twenty-one menus every Planist and Violinist Win Applause at Princess.

Gaston Dethier, planist, and Edouard Dethier, violinist, gave a sonata recital last evening in the Princess Theatre.

Is able to combine art and housewifery by making out twenty-one menus every week and handing them over to the cook, who is thus prepared to serve three meals a day for a week.

But why this sudden call of the kitchen on Miss Arthur? She has been living ever since her marriage in the cook.

is in Europe an unfamiliar kind of en-vas excellent in taste and variety, tertainment which he will bring to the tertainment which he will bring to the tertainment which he will bring to the Century Theatre in case he can obtain the lease. It would have to be some-thing of a kind hitherto unknown here to prove a success at the Century Thea-tre. All known forms of amusement have been tried there. Opera in all languages, ballet, drama, operetta in Italian, German, French and English, burtlesque and splendidly acted drama nsemble. In the delivery of burlesque and splendidly acted drama have all been attempted without success. It would be a courageous manager who would again attempt to win success there with anything that is already known to the world of amuse-ments. A new kind will have to be invented to make the Century Theatre a > liability of out of town judgment in the case of "Treasure Island," which has turned out to be one of the greatest successes of the season. This drama was acted in several places to the frankly expressed derision of the press. There was no attempt to conceal the worthlessness of the performance.

ness of the performance.
On the other hand "Two is Company" was acclaimed the triumph of the season whenever provincial opinion was pronounced on the musical play. It came to New York and died a more or less lingering death. But "Treasure Island" will fill Mr. Hopkins's ecclesiastical little playbours so long as he was the provinces. cal little playhouse so long as he wants sa Garrison gave the Polonaise a play for that purpose. Such is the lignon," Miss Braslau sang the value of the out of town judgment.

They do say that Elsie Janis is going act in "Honor Bright," which Cathto act in "Honor Bright," which Catherine Cushing wrote for Blanche Ring, mber on the programme. The after she has made a tour in vaudeville Bara Bare for St. Mark's Hospital, to be given at the Grand Central Palace next week.

Edith Wynne Matthison, Julia Arthur and Lydis Lapokouva will appears

Airbrake acrobatics on Fourth avenue line.

IS TRIANGLE OFFERING

Weber, Fields, Collier and Bernard to Be Seen at the Knickerbocker.

has arrived to compete with the familiar migh touch and pedalling is not hy that of any other planist this public. That he enters hand so disapproved of the theatre hand so disapproved of the theatre that he would never allow his son to terday at the Knickerbocker Theatre.

> for greed, and Jane Grey and Tu Marshall in a picture of Mexican life entitled "Let Katy Do It." hinges upon the devotion of two men-for one woman. Miss Hamper has the part of the unfaithful wife and Mr. Mantell that of the old husband who has to stand for it. The same picture is also being exhibited at the Riverside Theatre.

Happened to Father, a set of the story by Mary Rhinebardt. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in "The Home Cure" and Maurice Costello in "The Question of Right or Wrong" were the other features of the entertainment.

The war pictures at the Fulton, Cohan The war pictures at the Fulton, Cohan and Company of the control of the set of the control and Park theatres continue to draw capacity audiences. A new series will be introduced at the Park this after-Burton Holmes gave an illustrated ecture on Scotland last evening at the Candler Theatre.

MME, SEMBRICH GRAVELY ILL. Singer Has Pleuro-Paeumonia, Her Physicians Say.

noon. After a careful diagnosis of the case it was decided that Mme. Sembrich

MAGGIE TEYTE ILL IN BOSTON.

Unable to Appear at Hippodrome Concert Last Night.

Maggie Teyte, who was to have been the principal soloist at the concert at the Hippodrome last night, was taken ill in Boston, where she is singing with the Pavlowa Opera Company, and was unable to appear. Belle Storey of the Willip-Hip-Hooray" company filled the vacancy. Sousa led his band in a number of his own compositions and some operatic airs.

West End Association, meeting, Hotel Associat

$500,000 LEFT FOR CHARITY. LARGE COLLECTION OF Prustees for Estate of John W. Hunt Announce Funds Available.

Hunt Announce Funds Available.

The trustees under the will of John W. Hunt, who died in 1910, leaving an estate of about $1,800,000, have announced that although the settlement of suits brought against the estate by the heirs at law and by Mr. Hunt's widow have consumed $600,000, there will be a balance of at least $500,000 to devote to the charitable purposes provided in the will.

Mr. Hunt, who lived at Savannah, Ga. for many years, directed in his will that for many years, directed in his will that the residue, which he believed would amount to more than $1,000,000, be used to establish a charitable institution in southern Georgia. When the beins sought to break the will on the ground that the bequest was too indefinite the trustees, under the advice of their attorney, John Robert Mantell and Genevieve Hamber are to be seen this week at the per are to be seen this week at the per are to be seen this week at the heological seminary of its kind in Academy of Music in "The Unfaithful Wife," a photo play, the theme of which for one woman. Miss Hamper has the part of the unfaithful wife and Mr. Mantell that of the old husband who has to stand for it. The same picture has to stand for it. It is decorated on school, Yeshibath Etz Chaim, and of a small seminary named in honor of its founder, Rabbi Isaac Elchanan.

"Jane," an old play of the late Board of Aldermen, Persident of the Board of Aldermen, Persident of the most important items, but the decorate competition that has developed among American collectors for Mme. Yang-shi's black hawthorn vases and the harmonic Society took place yesterday afternoon at Carnegie Hall. The pro-gramme consisted of Mendelssohn's over-ture "Fingal's Cave." Schubert's unfinished symphony, Weber's "Der Freischuetz" overture, Berlioz's "Queen Mab scherzo, Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole" for violin and orchestra and the music from the opera "Henry VIII." of Saint-Saens. The American violinist Francis MacMillen, who until yesterday had not been heard here with for several seasons, was the soloist.

In Mr. MacMillen's playing of the solo The condition of Mmc. Sembrich, who is seriously ill in her apartments at the Hotel Gotham. took a slight turn for the worse yesterday and made necessary the calling of another consultation of the physicians in attendance. Dr. Richard Wiener, her personal physician; Dr. Evan Evans and Dr. Samuel Lambert met at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. After a careful diagnosis of the case it was decided that Mmc. Sembrich is suffering from a serious attack of pleuro-pneumonia, and she was said to be "very gravely ill."

Late last night it was reported that the singer was resting as comfortably as possible under the conditions.

The work of the orchestra in its lighter numbers was noteworthy for good balance, excellent tone quality and fine nuance. The "Queen Mab" scherzo was given in an especially charming and finished manner. Schubert's unfinished symphony, which is not infre-The work of the orchestra in its mendable. In New York To-day.

quently given at the society's concerts, received also a reading that was com-

Presbyterian Union, dinner, Hotel Savoy, Lecture by Prof. Scott Nearing, City Col-

West End Association, meeting, Hotel Ansonia, 8:30 P. M. Opening of International Foreign Trade Conference, Hotel Astor, afternoon. Other concerts last evening were given at the Cort Theatre, where Victor Herbert led the orchestra in an exclusively Victor Herber programme; at the Winter Garden, where Cecil Lean and Cleo Mayfield were the particular attractions, and at the Theatre Francais.

Conference, Hotel Astor, afternoon.

American Geographical Society, meeting.

29 West Thirty-ninth street 8:30 P. M.

Dedication of Joan of Are statue, Riverside Drive and Ninety-third street, 2:30 P. M.

Labor Temple, lecture on "The Necessity for a Public Defender," by Mayer C. Goldman, Fourteenth street and Second evenue.

ORIENTAL ART ON VIEW

Black Hawthorn Vase Among Yang-shi Articles to Be Sold on Wednesday.

One of the largest and most important collections of Chinese and other

875,000 Structure Dedicated With rose wares show a high degree of example and January 27, the Hospital Autome Theatre.

"Jane," an old play of the late "George McAneny, President of the bill at the Strand Theatre this week. Charlotte Greenwood has the leading role. Herbert Standing and Lydia Yeamans are also in the cast. There is the usual musical programme and a topical review as well.

Having discontinued the run of "The Battle Cry of Peace," the Vitagraph Theatre trunced to its old policy yesterday and presented Frank Daniels in "What Happened to Father," a screen version of Happened to Father, and the late of the land of the Rev. Dr. Hampened in honor to bits founder, Rabbi Isaace Elchanan. George McAneny, President of the Board of Aldermen, said that New York's civic, social and religious life board of Aldermen, said that New York's civic, social and religious life was profoundly affected to its advantation of the Board of Aldermen, said that New York's civic, social and religious life was profoundly affected to its advantation of the Board of Aldermen, said that New York's civic, social and religious life.

There are especially large groups of single color vases, such as sang de bourf, powder blue, mirror blacks, muster presented and whites and lead was profoundly affected to its advantation of single color vases, such as sang de bourf, powder blue, mirror blacks, muster presented and subregious life of the dance.

There are especially large groups of single color vases, such as sang de bourf, powder blue, mirror blacks, muster presented and subregious life.

There are especially large groups of single color vases, such as sang de bourf, powder blue, mirror blacks, muste THIRD PHILHARMONIC SUNDAY.

Violinist MacMillen is Soloist at Concert.

The third Sunday concert of the PhilThe third Sunday concert of the Phi ments, planted in cloisonne pots, are of the Chieng-Lung period. Many other carved objects of art are in agate, amethyst and crystal.

IRENE BORDONI A BRIDE.

Weds Edgar Beeman, Fellow Player at Theatre Français.

Irene Bordoni and Edgar Becman of the Theatre Francais Company have been married, it was learned last night been married, it was learned last night when their friends in the company re-ceived wedding announcements. The ceremony was performed about two weeks ago and had been keet secret. Miss Bordon was last seen with Elste Janis in "Miss Information" and pre-viously at the Winter Garden several years ago. She came to America from the Theatre Renaissance of Paris. Mr. Becman was once seen with Polaire in "The Visiteur" at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre and has an established reputation as a concert hall artist com-ing to America from the Theatre Vaudeville in Paris.

ST5,000 Structure Dedicated With Imposing Exercises.

Imposing Exercises.

The $75,000 home of the Rabbinical College, in Montgomery street near Grand street, the first orthodox Jewish theological seminary of its kind in America, was dedicated yesterday afternoon with imposing exercises.

Jacob Hecht, president of the col-

Eugene Walter's new play, "Just a ing at the Cort Theatre.

"The Lone Game" is the title of a motion picture to be released soon by Thomas A. Edison to aid the eampaign of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

"The Devil's Garden," the play made from the novel by W. B. Maxwell, will open at the Harris Theatre on December 27. Lyn Harding and Idlian Albertson have the leading roles.

A. H. Woods has purchased the English rights to "Pair and Warmer," Avery Hopwood's farce playing at the Eltinge Theatre. He plans to present the play in London along with "Abe and Mawruss" and "Common Clay,"

"It is the funniest little nonsense book since 'The Foolish Dictionary' " L'hiladelphia Ledger. A LAUGH IN EVERY LINE

"The Log of The Ark" By I. L. GORDON and A. J. FRUEH

"Who is Who" in this famous Ark:

First Officer, Shem Second Officer, Ham

E. P. DUTTON & COMPANY, 681Fifth Avenue, NEW YORK CITY

CARDINAL FARLEY IS A GUEST AT TUXEDO

Entertained at Dinners by the H. O. Havemeyers and Richard Delafields.

MANY HOUSE PARTIES

TUREDO PARK, Dec. 5 .- The colomete who are still here entertained at house parties to-day and those who came out last night for the entertainment given at the club for the benefit of the American Hospital Corps in Paris remained

The Rev. Thomas J. Kennan of the The Rev. Thomas J. Kennan of the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel entertained Cardinal Farley of New York over the week end. The Cardinal and party dined with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer at their country place at Mahwah last night. They were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Delafield at dinner at Brook Farm this evening. Among the guests besides the Cardinal were the Rev. Mr. Carroll, his secretary; the Rev. Thomas Kennan, Mr. and Mrs. F. de P. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood. The Cardinal remained with Father Kennan a guest at the rectory to-night.

mained with Father Kennan a guest at the rectory to-night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic de P. Foster entertained at dinner at the club last night and Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Morris, who came out for the week end, were also host and hostess to a large party. Among others who had dinner parties before the informal dance at the club were Pierre Lorillard, Mrs. Amory S. Carhart and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Spencer Morris. The winter sports committee is getting everything in readiness for the cold weather. The specially made rink at the circle of the Tuxedo Club has been tary honors and ten days mourning for flooded and now awaits freezing weather. A curling rink has been made on the tennis courts.

An exhibition of motion pictures of the tennis week at Newport will be given next Saturday by Robert Walton Goelet, the display to be followed by a small dance. The unnual New Year's costume dance will be held at the Tuxedo Club on Friday evening, December 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Pooler will open next week their Tuxedo villa, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Weld. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Alexander Weld. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Alexander and the Misses Alexander passed the week end here at their cottage, as did also Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Tilford, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Spencer Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Spencer Morris, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Munroe, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tuckerman. Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Morris passed Sunday at the club. Mrs. Edward H. Harriman passed the week end at Arden House, entertaining a large party, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pierson Hamilton were at Table Rock to-day.

Among others arriving to-day were Church.

Among others arriving to-day were Dr. and Mrs. George Druper, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Weld, William Gilman Low, Mrs. F. M. Weid, William Giffman Low, Jr., H. C. de Rham, J. Frederic Tams, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hoppin, Andrew Vanneck, William M. Ramsey, F. O. de Veau, Beverley Duer, George P. de Veau, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Miss Marie Van Vorst and George St. George.

Walter D. Briggs.

Summit, N. J., Dec. 5.—Following an illness of three days Walter D. Briggs, Summit, N. J., Dec. 5.—Following an illness of three days Walter D. Briggs.

COMIC OPERAS FOR CHARITY.

Four war charities are to benefit by a season of opera comique to be given at the Princess Theatre under the direction of the Music League of America, beginning on December 14 and continutering the season of the constraint of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of the species of ment. It is true that my husband of the species of the Plays and Players.

The 100th performance of "Hit-the-Trai Holliday" will be given at the Asia Theatre to-night. Emanuel Reicher will make the second committee composed of Daniel Frohman, Sam II Harris, Lee Shubert and Marc Kiaw are planning to give a testimonial dinner to William H. Crane early in the new year. At that time Mr. Crane and his company will be playing in New York in "The New Henrietta."

John Cort is assembling a second com-pany to send on tour in Victor Herbert's light opera "The Princess Pat," now play-ing at the Cort Theatre.

Wireless Operator, Shem Chief Engineer, Ham Chief Steward, Japheth

Bottle Washer, Mrs. Shem Stewardess, Mrs. Ham Laundress, Mrs. Japheth Chief Engineer, Ham
Chief Steward, Japheth Veterinarian, Myself
Chief Cook, Mrs. Noah
Cargo, Live Stock PRICE $1.00 NET. AT ANY BOOKSTORE

The Large Oriental Collection Recently brought from China, the property of Madame Yang-shi, and consigned for Unrestricted Public Sale. Remarkable Specimens of Ancient Pottery. Rare and Beautiful Single Color, Blue-and-White, and Five-Color Chinese Porcelains of the highest quality. Old Chinese Lacquers, Bronzes, and Jades. Crystals, Enamels, Screens, Embroideries, Tapestries and Chinese Rugs. To be Sold in Seven Continuous Afternoon and Evening Sessions, at 2:30 and 8:15 o'clock beginningWednesday Afternoon, December 8th.

525252525252525

NOW ON PUBLIC EXHIBITION

The Anderson Galleries

Catalogues on Application.

Telephone, 7680 Murray Hill. SALE CONDUCTED BY MR. FREDERICK A. CHAPMAN.

IMPORTANT UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC SALE

THIS (MONDAY) AFTERNOON,

beginning at 2:30 o'clock,

The private collection of

Mr. Timothy F. Crowley

Beautiful Old Wedgwood

The Famous Medallion "Medusa's Head" By Flasman

From the Horace Townsend Collection Bennington, Whieldon, Staffordshire

Salt-Glaze and Other

Old China, Stone Ware and Pewter.

The Sale Will Be Conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY of the American Art Association, Managers

2. 4 and 6 East 23d St., Madison Sq. So.

turned from the Union League, his body was not discovered until late this after-25252925252525252

GEN. RABI, A HERO OF CUBA, IS DEAD AMERICAN ART GALLERIES NEW YORK OFF

President Menocal Decrees Ten Days Mourning for the Patriot,

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. HAVANA, Dec. 5 .- Gen. Jesus Rabi, s hero of both Cuban wars for independence, died this morning at Santiago.

funeral expenses. Gen, Rabi was of Indian descent and was illiterate.

sion made an appropriation to pay the

Mrs. Catherine De La Vergue. Mrs. Catherine A. De La Vergne, widow of John Chester De La Vergne, died yesterday at her apartments in the Hotel Touraine, 9 East Thirty-ninth street. Her husband was the founder and president of the De La Vergne, Esfrigerating Machine Company

Walter D. Briggs.

woollen merchants of New York. He moved to Summit from Boston twenty years ago. He was a lover of horses and the owner of a valuable stable, including several blue ribbon winners. Mr. Briggs was a member of the Aldine Club of New York, the Highland Club

BORN.

DIED.

ANDREWES.—December S. 1915, Harold A. Andrewes of Sea Cliff, L. L. age 43 years. Services Stephen Merrit's Chapel, 223 Eighth avenue, nea

-At Baltimore, on Thursday, December 2, 1915, Edward R., son of the ate Elizabeth Rathbone and David R.

papers please copy.

Funeral services will be held at the restdence of her brother-in-law, William E. Baillie, 161 Washington avenue, on Lincoln place, Brooklyn, in the sixtyfifth year of his age.

Interment at Greenwood Cemetery on Monday, at 10:30 A. M., from his late AVIS .- On Saturday, December 4, 1911 after a lingering illness, at the Hotel Biltmore, New York city, Octavio E. Davis of Havana, Cuba, general manager of the Stewart Sugar Company Friends may view the remains at McLa ney's Mortuary Chapel, 874 Lexington avenue, near Sixty-fifth street. Requiem venue and Fiftieth street. DE LA VERGNE .- On Sunday, December John Chester De La Vergne.

Funeral service at St. Thomas's Church. Fifth avenue and Fifty-third street, on Tuesday, December 7, at 3 P. M. erment private. ENGLISH .- At his residence, 67 Trumbul seventy-fourth year of his age. Funeral services will be held at St. Paul's eighteen months ago, Mr. Hazeltine ap-parently had been in good health.

Except for an attack of vertigo about

More than 10,000 Jews followed the Leibowitz Synagogue in Brownsville yes-terday when it was borne through the streets from the synagogue to Washing-ton Cemetery. The rabbi died on Satur-day in Mount Sinai Hospital.

Elizabeth N. Rogers. Miss Elizabeth Nicholson Rogers, daughter of the late Alexander Robertson and Mary Darden Rogers, died yes-terday at her home, 113 West Seventyterday at her i WINTER GOLF AT ARDSLEY.

More Than 100 Players on Club's TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 5 .- The Ards ley Club was the scene of much activity to-day despite the fact that the golf course was in winter dress. More than

WALCOTT.—Daughter born to Mr. and HOWARD.—At Corona, L. 1., on December Mrs. Walcott, 528 Cambridge street, 5, 1915, Mary L., widow of Thomas W. Brooklyn, on Sunday morning at 11

Bacon.
Funeral services at St. Thomas's Church.
Fifth avenue and Fifty-third street, on BAILLIE .- Suddenly, in Bridgeport, Conn Sunday, December 5, 1915, Matilda M. Baillie, widow of Waiter S. Baillie of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and Edinburgh,

Wednesday, December 8, at 2:30 o'clock P. M. Kindly omit flowers. ARKE.-William S., on Saturday, De-cember 4. after long filness, at 437 residence.

day, December 9, at St. Patrick's, Fifth at her residence. 9 East Thirty ninth street, in her seventy-third year. Catherine A. Van Aerman, widow of street, New Haven. Conn.. December 4. 1915. Benjamin R. English, in the Episcopal Church, New Haven, on Mon-day afternoon, December 6, at half past two o'clock. Kindly omit flowers. HOBSON.—Katherine Thayer, widow of Henry Wise Hobson of Colorado Springs, Col., December 3, 1915, at the age of 56. She is survived by two daughters and two sons.

Funeral service and interment at Troy
N. Y., Tuesday, December ?.

DIED.

Howard, aged 73 years. Fineral service will be held at Uni Evangelical Church, Corona, 1. Tuesday, December 7, at 2 P. M.

JENKINS .-- Mrs. Beatrice L., nea Maleac widow of the late Robert C. Jenkina at her residence, 801 West End avenue. Funeral notice later. ing. Lake George, N. Y., on Frida; December 3, 1916, after a long times, Antonio Knauth, husband of Es-Uhileh Knauth, in the sixtieth year o his age.

mis age.

Vuneral services will be held at St

Michael's Church, Amsterdam avenue and Ninety-minth street, on Monday norning, December 6, at 10 o'clock Wednesday, December 8, at 10 A. M. Interment private.

Interment private. Paris and London PERKINS.—On Saturday, December Neitle O., wife of George C > 408 Fourth street, Brooklyn, Monday, December 6, at 8 P. M. Interment a. New Haven, Conn. New Haven, Conn.

>
> RADFORD—On Friday, December 2, 1915. Therese J., widow of the Rev. Charles J. Radford and sister of the late William M. Filess.
>
> Funeral services at St. Agnes Chapel, West Ninety-second street, on Monday, December 6, at 1:30 P. M. Interment private.

RODGERS -- On Sunday, December 5, 1915, at her residence, 113 West Seventy-seventh street, New York city, Elizabeth Nicholson Rodgers, daughter of the late Alexander Robertson and Mar-Darden Rodgers. Find Collegiate Church, West End avenue and Seventy-seventh street, on Tuesday, December 7, 1815, at 10 A. M. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the services. mass, to which his friends are invited, STAFFORD.—On Saturday, December 1 1915, at his residence, 630 East Fit teenth street, corner Foster avenue, Brooklyn, Willis E. Stafford, husband of Marion E. Hopper, and father of Willis H. and C. Morion Stafford and Mrs. Howard H. Snyder,

Funeral services Monday evening, December 6, at 8 o'clock. In private. TOBIN.-Thomas Francis, aged 34. West Twenty-third street (Frank F Campbell Building), Monda

WALSH .- On December 4. Mary Walsh, native of Tipperary, Ireland.

Funeral services at her late residence. 75 East Eighty-fifth street, on Tuesday, December 7, at 8:30 A. M., thence to the Church of St. Ignatius Levels. Park avenue and Eighty-fourth stree

UNDERTAKERS.

FPANK E.CAMPBELLE 243